

Urinary, Water, Electrolyte, and Acid-Base Balance

Across

- 6. Which hormone increases the removal of H₂O?
- 7. what is an example of insensible perspiration?
- 9. What is an example of sensible perspiration?
- 10. what are the three major region of rthe kidneys?

Down

- 1. Process of emptying the bladder.
- 2. What type of pressure regulates fluid movement in and out of cells?
- 3. The small artery that carries blood toward the capillaries of the glomerulus.
- 4. The more acidic the solution the _____ its pH
- 5. What would happen without thirst?
- 8. What level of of bladder capacity is fullness?

Word Bank

cortex medulla renal pelvis
300mL
Osmotic Pressure
Evaporation

Afferent Arteriole
Sweat higher

ADH
Micturition
Dehydration