

Name: _____

Date: _____

Using Securities Markets for Financing and Investing Opportunities Pt.2

Across

3. Collections of stocks and bonds and other investments that are traded on exchanges but are traded like individual stocks.
7. Purchasing stocks by borrowing some of the purchase cost from the brokerage firm.
8. Works as a market intermediary to buy and sell securities for clients.
9. An organization that buys stocks and bonds and other investments, then sells shares in those securities to the public.
10. Buying several different investment alternatives to spread the risk of investing.

Word Bank

Junk bonds
Capital gains
Buying stock on margin
stockbroker

Mutual fund
Diversification
Program trading

Exchange traded funds
Stock splits
Dow Jones Industrial Average

Down

1. The average cost of 30 selected industrial stocks.
2. Computers automatically sell stock to avoid potential losses if the the price of it falls to a certain point, they're instructed by investors.
4. The positive difference between the purchase price of a stock and its sale price.
5. High risk, high interest bonds.
6. A company gives stockholders two or more shares of stocks for each one they own.