

Utilitarianism revision crossword

Across

2. The philosopher who invented the thought experiment in 5 Down
 3. In Bentham's calculus, the criteria of a pleasure that gives rise to further pleasures
 7. What "is always good for a person in and of itself"?
 8. In Bentham's calculus, the criteria of a pleasure devoid of any negative utility
 12. The type of claim that guides how we ought to live
 13. The type of calculus that Bentham used to weigh decisions regarding utility
 15. An objection to utilitarianism picked out by the life raft scenario
 17. how we can remember the criteria contained within Bentham's calculus

20. In Bentham's view, the 2 things that pain and pleasure were for humankind
 21. The four axioms of Benthamite utilitarianism

Down

1. A synonym for Consequentialist; often used by Aristotle
 4. The type of claim that factors guiding our behaviour could be called
 5. An objection to utilitarianism based on the lack of consideration to prior motives
 6. If pleasures are seen to not be of similar enough type to be compared, they are not...
 9. Just who or what gets included into utility calculations is often called the problem of...
 10. "One person is to stand for one" is a paraphrase of the equal.....of interests
 11. The types of pleasures picked out by Tom Hurka in his taxonomy not enjoyed by animals
 14. The name given to a missing or suppressed premise in an argument or syllogism
 16. The type of monster waiting down the end of the corridor
 18. The objection raised in the thought experiment concerning the traveller asked to shoot 1 native to save 19
 19. The designer of the Experience Machine thought experiment