

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

VIC #2 SET 3

Across

5. When my brother was yelling at my mom, I was being the _____ kid by doing my chores
8. There is a _____ between high school student and elementary school students
11. left over; remaining
12. The girl got upset after the boy said she was silly, which is a _____.
16. evaporating readily at normal temperatures; changeable; explosive; lighthearted; fleeting
17. An example of an _____ sport would be cross country.
19. lack of equality; difference
21. not easily persuaded or convinced; doubting the fundamental doctrines of religion
24. The desolate island was as close to _____ as it could get.
27. harmless
28. calmness

29. The problems my teacher works on the board are never _____ because they are not related to the homework
30. Mr. Shelton was extremely surprised at the _____ copper left in the solution from our lab.

Down

1. serving as a model
2. useful; advantageous
3. tending to soothe or reconcile
4. My coworker would do everything in her power to _____ the things I've done for her
6. Trying to tell the students it was okay if they got a bad grade, my teacher's tone was _____.
7. to oppose directly; to baffle; to block; to frustrate
9. Because my best friends and I spend so much time together we have a _____ relationship.

10. Going through his presentation with no problem, the crowd could tell that he was a very _____ young man.

13. a thought or a remark that is dull, trite flat, or weak

14. My paranormal activity research group was even _____ of going into the old, run down hospital.

15. able to put one's thoughts into words easily and clearly

18. excellent, but existing only in fancy or theory; given to dreams or schemes of perfection

20. I saw a snake and got scared, but my dad assured me that it was _____.

22. hard to do; strenuous

23. I tried to keep my _____, knowing there was an armed intruder in the building.

25. he offensive lawyer's main point was _____ by the defense attorney.

26. to discredit; to belittle