

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOC List 8

Across

2. (adj) having an end or limit; not infinite
Synonyms: restricted, definable Antonyms: continuous, forever

4. water Ex) hydrophobic, hydrophilic

5. too much, over Ex) hypertension, hyperbole

10. (adj) poor; lacking sufficient money
Synonyms: destitute, impoverished Antonyms: wealthy, rich

13. different Ex) heterozygous, heterochromia

14. (adj) sheer and filmy; transparent
Synonyms: delicate, light Antonyms: thick, opaque

15. (n) lack of consciousness, knowledge, or memory; being completely forgotten
Synonyms: coma, blackout Antonyms: awareness, consciousness

18. emotional associations surrounding a word as opposed to the dictionary definition/ implied meaning of a word (personal or universal experience) Ex) American Flag: Patriotism, pride, glory.

19. six Ex) hexagram, sextuplets

20. (adj) found in ample supply Synonyms: surplus, plentiful Antonyms: sparse, lacking

Down

1. (n) wise caution; the quality of being careful and judicious Synonyms: sagacity, shrewdness Antonyms: folly, recklessness

3. word order. Ex) Robert Frost: "Who's woods these are I think I know." Ex) Yoda: "Much fear, I sense in you."

6. (v) to happen for a second time, or to happen repeatedly at intervals Synonyms: periodically, returning Antonyms: once, stopping

7. (v) to misinterpret; to understand incorrectly Synonyms: misunderstand, misconceive Antonyms: understand, comprehend

8. (v) to entangle in disagreement, argument, or conflict Synonyms: involve, ensnare Antonyms: extricate, separate

9. strict, literal meaning of a word/ definition. Ex) American Flag: Seven Red and Six White Stripes.

11. the author's choice of words and phrases in a literary work. Ex) Shakespeare's way of writing vs Steinbeck's. Ex) "Fetch" in Mean Girls

12. same Ex) homologous, homogeneous

16. (adj) giving off light Synonyms: shining, dazzling Antonyms: dark, black

17. a form of speech characteristic of a particular region or class, differing from the standard language in pronunciation, vocabulary, and grammatical form. Ex) "dude" (Southern California) Ex) "wicked" (Boston)