

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vaccines and Preventions

Across

3. What respiratory bacterial infection can canines contract?
8. What injectable heartworm prevention do we carry?
10. What viruses are also included in the respiratory virus Distemper vaccine to create a 3 way vaccine?
13. How often do you give the flea/tick oral medication Simparica?
16. What monthly oral heartworm prevention do we carry?
17. The feline heartworm prevention Revolution Plus also prevents what other two external parasites?

Down

1. This flea/tick medication is given every 90 days.
2. This bacterial infection is typically spread through contaminated water and urine.
4. Which canine virus causes GI symptoms and can quickly lead to death?
5. Feline leukemia is a retrovirus that causes immune suppression. What life phase do we consider this a core vaccine?
6. If a dog is not on heartworm prevention, how often do we check the heartworm test?

7. What nervous system virus is zoonotic?

9. What virus is tested in the feline combo test, but we do not vaccinate for due to the vaccine causing them to always show positive on the test?

11. This vaccine is often called the feline distemper because it combines 3 separate viruses.

12. A virus that can lead to both respiratory and GI symptoms?

14. What flea/tick prevention lasts 8 months?

15. Borrelia is a tick borne disease also called?