

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vascular - Arterial

Across

- 4. Subclavian artery becomes the _____ at the level of the first rib
7. travels along the medial aspect of the forearm
9. travels along the lateral aspect of the forearm
11. Artery that arises on the right side only
13. Layer of vessel wall that is thicker in arteries than in veins

16. Another name for internal iliac artery

17. Branches into peroneal and PTA

Down

- 1. branches into left gastric, splenic, and common hepatic arteries
2. Located just distal to the celiac artery
3. Landmark where femoral artery becomes popliteal artery
5. deep femoral artery

6. Branches into radial and ulnar arteries

8. level in which the aorta bifurcates

10. Carotid that branches directly off the aortic arch

12. Courses laterally down the leg to become the DPA

14. Anatomic variant of aortic arch with only two direct branches

15. courses posterior to medial malleolus