

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vehicle Extrication

Across

5. What is our overall priority during extrication?
 7. requires specialized skills and equipment to safely enter and move around
 9. a designated area with minimal hazards present
 10. the individual who has overall command of the scene in the field
 11. the removal from entrapment or from a dangerous situation or position (also called disentanglement)

12. an area where people can be exposed to sharp metal edges, broken glass, toxic substances, radiation, or explosion of hazardous materials
 13. any substance that is toxic, poisonous, radioactive, flammable, or explosive and can cause injury or death when exposed

Down

1. a condition in which a person is caught within a closed area with no way out or has a limb or other body part

2. multiple people from one or more departments in a region who are trained and on call for certain types of technical rescues
 3. the ongoing process of information gathering and scene evaluation to determine appropriate strategies and tactics to manage an emergency while paying attention to hazards
 4. gaining entry to an enclosed area and reaching the patient
 6. trying to get to the patient as quickly and simply as possible without using any tools or force
 8. How many phases of extrication are there?