

Name: _____

Vers, Vert Crossword

Across

2. to go against an established authority
4. to go back to a previous action or thought
6. a discussion that is between two people that goes back in forth between the two people
8. to divide money into different investments so you will protected if something bad happens
10. a person who is outgoing and wants people to turn their attention to them

Down

1. the date when an event turns a year older
3. something that takes your mind off of something
5. to turn your beliefs to a different belief
7. someone who keeps to themselves, someone who wants attention turned away from them
9. to turn something from one way to the other