

Name: _____

Victimization Puzzle

Across

2. laws that victims can get information, protections, and be involved in the criminal justice process
6. theory of victim types based on the responsibility of the victim to his victimization
9. hypothesis where a person can make sense of victimization and feels different than the person who is victimized
12. someone who has been injured by the actions of another

13. where a victim feels victimized by the crime and the criminal justice system

14. theory that victimization and crime exist in everyday life

Down

1. victim's right to be reimbursed for some of the out-of-pocket expenses that resulted from crime
3. theory that focuses on how personal factors effect victimization
4. victims have the right to be free from threats, intimidation, or retaliation

5. victim's right to have the offender pay for some of the damage that was caused by the crime

7. type of victim that because of a mental defect a person believes he has been victimized

8. field of study that looks at rates, incidence, effects, and prevalence of victims

10. someone who is victimized by a random and unpredicted criminal act

11. hypothesis where society needs to believe that people deserve whatever happens to them