

Name: _____

Date: _____

Victorian Era Medicine

Across

2. how much did the development in the field of medicine grow in 50 years?

7. a substance put into an organism to stimulate specific cells or tissue into action were discovered, what is this?

8. discoveries and inventions ranged from different things but which could take pictures of the body with electromagnetic radiation?

9. who used technology (optics) to prove that germs and bacteria existed?

13. when a doctor would come in and cut, place a leech on, or scratch a major vein to release "bad blood". Which wasn't very effective, and did more harm than any good.

14. doctors didn't hesitate to amputate, what kind of treatment was this?

15. when disease outbreaks happened they were frequent and deadly, but what spread like what?

Down

1. what disease was moved place from place and killed a lot of the U.S. soldiers in the Civil War?

3. what medicine grew huge popularity and fashion?

4. how come the people of the Victorian Era were vulnerable to the epidemic diseases?

5. painfully inducing a blister multiple times on one's skin. People in the Victorian Era believed a person could only hold one illness at a time so they'd induce hundreds of blisters for an example because they thought all that pain would force out the other illness, the patient would end up dying.

6. what other remedy for a treatment than a prescription was there?

10. at the time medicines and treatments were?

11. vaccines and cures were just getting discovered at that time so what happened to the people who didn't have the proper treatment?

12. the Victorian Era field of medical and science development was made more comfortable for the quality of life, why?