

Visual Arts Comp II Final Review

Across

- 1. any work which projects from a wall or other type of background surface.
- 7. a temple dedicated to the Goddess Athena
- 9. space that surrounds a piece of work or to the openings within the piece that emphasizes the form
- 11. Movement is the main principle of design in Kinetic Sculptures (sculptures that move)
- 13. Subject matter shown true-to-life without stylization
- 14. Principle of Design... Encloses volume
- 16. was built in 72-80 and is located in Rome, Italy and held 50,000 people who watched various spectator events
- 17. The Greek Order with scroll on top that looks like the capital letter I
- 20. Pop Artist who creates extremely large sculptures of ordinary objects such as Spoonbridge
- 21. Another word for color

23. one of the most famous Italian Renaissance artists

24. This sculpture is also called Winged Victory. It is a Greek Hellenistic sculpture that contains movement and emotion

25. Most people are between 6-8 heads tall. Human faces are 5 eyes wide.

Down

- 2. A sculpture that can be viewed from any angle
- 3. Sculptors in Roman history would popularize portrait sculptures of prominent citizens and rulers.
- 4. Greek order whose capital contains acanthus leaves
- 5. Balance achieved by arranging elements on either side of the center of a composition
- 6. This sculpture is often said to be the first known sculpture and made around 30,000 BC It is small enough to fit in a person's hand It is thought to represent fruitfulness(fertility)

8. Features include flying buttresses, pointed arches, ribbed vaulting, gargoyles, and stained glass

10. When a sculptor removes material from a sculpture This describes the carving of plaster, stone or wood

12. An element of art that is used to define space, contours and outlines or suggest mass and volume

15. These are the most simple of the orders with no base and a plain capital

18. Artists looked back at the art and architecture of the ancient Greece-Roman traditions

19. There are three distinct types of columns in this system: Doric, Ionic and Corinthian

22. Term that is most closely related to tactile (tactile means touch or feel of something)