

Visual Literacy Vocabulary

Across

- 3. Works that are familiar to the public as art are...
- 4. _____ refers to the qualities of an actual surface or the visual representation of a surface (implied.)
- 7. When tints and shades of just one color are used in an artwork it is called...
- 10. A _____ is a color with white added to it.
- 16. A material used to create an artwork is called a...
- 18. Artwork that has a sense of completion is said to have...
- 19. Colors that are directly opposite of each other on the color wheel are called...
- 21. _____ takes art from reality but presents it in a way that is not real.
- 22. When artwork has a focal point it uses the design principle...

- 24. The range of light and dark is...
- 25. Artwork that is created to sell a product and is purely for advertising purposes is called...
- 26. _____ art takes nothing from reality. It is created purely for aesthetic reasons.

Down

- 1. A _____ is a color with black added to it.
- 2. Having great differences in an element, such as value, produces the design principle...
- 5. Three dimensional shape is known as
- 6. Art that is produced at the present period in time is called...
- 8. Artwork with balance distributed (weighted) evenly on each side of an imaginary vertical line is called...

- 9. This type of art usually is associated with art in which the traditions of the past have been thrown aside in a spirit of experimentation.
- 11. The things that are represented in an artwork such as people, animals, trees, etc. are called...
- 12. _____ art represents actual objects or subjects from reality.
- 13. The theory of of perceiving and enjoying something for its beauty and pleasurable qualities is...
- 14. _____ is the path of a point moving through space.
- 15. The repetition of a color, line, or curve often produces the design principle...
- 17. A line that suggests an edge rather than clearly defining one is called an...
- 20. The illusion of distance (depth) is...
- 23. Art that is created for decoration and with useful purpose is...