

Name: _____ Date: _____

Vocab-By the Great Horn Spoon-Chapter One

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1. to satisfy thirst | A. anxious |
| 2. extremely important | B. clamor |
| 3. a thought based more on feeling than on fact that something is wrong or bad | C. penetrate |
| 4. not discouraged or frightened by dangers or difficulties | D. scoundrel |
| 5. dreadful or urgent | E. dire |
| 6. a dangerous disease that causes severe sickness and diarrhea | F. slake |
| 7. worried; very eager to do something | G. baffle(d) |
| 8. depressed, discouraged, or disheartened | H. oozed |
| 9. to move in an unsteady, jerky way | I. balance |
| 10. to puzzle or confuse someone | J. dispirited |
| 11. violent or dangerous; very strong or extreme | K. rogue |
| 12. when a bird or animal's outer skin comes off | L. lurch |
| 13. to go inside or through something | M. despicable |
| 14. to flow out slowly | N. molting |
| 15. a dishonest person | O. imperative |
| 16. a thing or a person who is disliked | P. cholera |
| 17. ability to keep steady and not fall over | Q. suspicion |
| 18. to demand something noisily | R. undaunted |
| 19. a wicked person, especially someone who cheats and lies | S. fierce |