

Vocab Contract Social Studies

Across

- 1. The theory or practice of emphasizing the regional characteristics of locale or setting, as by stressing local speech.
- 3. A type of music with a strong rhythm which was popular in early 1900s.
- 10. A theatrical genre of variety entertainment. It was especially popular in the United States and Canada from the early 1880s until the early 1930s
- 11. a style of painting and sculpture developed about the mid-19 century in which figures and scenes are depicted as they are experienced or might be experienced in everyday life
- 13. poor, crowded, and run down urban neighborhood
- 14. A minority that speaks a different language or follows different customs than the majority of people in a country.

- 16. An approach to literature, art, and theater that shows things as they really are.
 - 17. cramped quarters on a ship's lower decks for passengers paying the lowest fares
 - 18. institution located in a poor neighborhood that provided numerous community services such as medical care, child care, libraries, and classes in English.
- Down
- 2. the belief that those born in a country are superior to immigrants
 - 4. a building in which several families rent rooms or apartments, often with little sanitation or safety
 - 5. The name associated with America in the late 1800s, referring to the extravagant wealth of a few and the terrible poverty that lay underneath

- 6. originally an agricultural college established as a result of 1862 Morrill Act that gave states large amounts of federal land that could be sold to raise money for education.
- 7. A shop or factory where workers work long hours at low wages under unhealthy conditions.
- 8. To absorb a group into the culture of a larger population.
- 9. writing which exaggerates sensational, dramatic, and gruesome events to attract readers, named for stories that were popular during the 1880s; a type of sensational biased and often false reporting.
- 12. Residential area or mixed use area, either existing as part of a city or urban area.
- 15. To leave one's homeland to live elsewhere