

Vocab Crossward Sections 2 and 3

Across

4. one who has committed a serious crime
 5. the quality of showing great concern for small details
 9. set free
 10. one who steals from pockets; pickpockets
 11. untidy; sloppy
 13. displaying disorder and confusion
 15. to fall away; decline
 17. fearfully
 20. the state of being refreshed an extremely happy
 21. an agreement to act together in a unlawful or wrongful manner

23. the act of repaying or making up for a loss of injury
 24. a tough, rough and disorderly person
 25. drifting freely with no anchor
 26. a great or violent confusion
 27. to see things that do not exist usually as a mentally disorder of drugs
 28. rising up against authority often with weapons
 29. to examine or observe very carefully
 30. a circular or spiral motion

Down

1. boldness; fearless daring
 2. separated from others; alone

3. to overturn
 6. harsh; extremely cruel
 7. someone who sneaks and hides aboard a ship, usually to get a free passage
 8. a prediction of the future
 12. muffled or unclear of sound
 14. to avoid or neglect, as a duty
 16. one who rules unjustly; tyrant
 18. the quality of being calm and even tempered
 19. an intense feeling of power or well being
 22. slang; gossip; rumors