

Vocab Menu

Across

3. symbiotic relationship where one organism benefits while the other is unaffected.

5. all the populations of different species that interact and live in a certain area.

8. feeding relationship among organisms in an ecosystem

13. symbiotic relationship where one organism benefits and the other is harmed.

14. organism that gets energy from eating other organisms.

16. place that an organism usually lives in and is part of an organism's niche.

18. organism that gets energy by breaking down the remains of other organisms.

19. includes organisms that are closely related and can mate and produce offspring.

20. symbiotic relationship where both organism benefit.

21. organism that eats only meat or other animals

Down

1. study of how organisms interact with each other and the environment.

2. environmental factor that limits the population of a species.

4. close long-term relationship between different species in a community.

6. organism that eats only plants

7. group of the same species living in the same place at the same time.

9. community of organisms and their nonliving environment.

10. one animal eats its prey.

11. organism that produces its own food from sunlight.

12. organism that eats plants and animals

15. land that contains many ecosystems.

17. path of energy transfer from producers to consumers.