

Vocab terms week 3

Across

1. Flat edge of instrument, sharp enough to cut.
4. An alloy, with one of the constituents being mercury.
7. Part of a clamp that is shaped into four prongs to help stabilize the clamp on the tooth.
11. Internal reaction or resistance to an externally applied force.
12. To reverse the position, order, or condition. To turn inside out or upside down.
14. A steel or tungsten carbide rotary cutting instrument.
15. Part of a dental instrument that is used on the tooth or when dental materials are mixed.

16. The act of holding something by means of an adhesive, or mechanical locking, or both.
18. Having a sense of touch or feeling.
19. Microscopic space located at the interface of the tooth structure and the sealant or restoration.
20. An electrical instrument used to hold rotary instruments.

Down

2. Pertaining to selected teeth visible through the dam; exposed.
3. Blades on the working end of a finishing rotary instrument that resemble pleats.
5. To restore or bring back to its natural appearance.

6. Pertaining to the same clamp that can be placed on the same type of tooth in the opposite quadrant.
8. Having notchlike projections that extend from a flat surface.
9. Referring to mechanical radiant energy of water and sound vibrations used to break down material or tissue.
10. Part of an instrument where the handle attaches to the working end.
13. Twisting or turning force.
17. Pertaining to selected teeth visible through the dam; isolated.