

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary 2.08

Across

- 2. the way a piece of writing sounds
- 3. a persuasive essay that uses logic and evidence to support an opinion
- 4. a specific detail, such as a fact or expert opinion, that supports a reason
- 9. the writer's attitude toward the topic or subject
- 12. a series of paragraphs that gives information to support the thesis of an essay

13. the intended readers to whom the author is writing

14. a passage urging readers to take a specific action in support of the views of the author

15. a word, phrase, or clause that connects ideas

Down

- 1. acknowledging that an opposing point is reasonable
- 5. the reason for writing

6. the first paragraph of an essay, identifying the topic and stating the main idea

7. the most important point, or main idea, of an essay

8. the final paragraph of an essay

10. a statement that explains why something is or why it should be

11. the words the writer chooses and the way the writer arranges the words into sentences