

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary 2.2

- | | |
|---|---------------|
| 1. a written account; a collection of facts | A. entrance |
| 2. to write something down; to put something on tape or film to listen to or view later | B. record |
| 3. trash, litter, or junk | C. refuse |
| 4. to not accept something; to say No to doing something | D. lobster |
| 5. a way of acting or behaving | E. minute |
| 6. to lead or direct | F. refuse |
| 7. the act of entering or the place of entry | G. barnacle |
| 8. to delight or fill with wonder | H. minute |
| 9. to be alive; to occupy a place | I. record |
| 10. alive; or happening right now | J. entrance |
| 11. a unit of time equal to 60 seconds | K. crustacean |
| 12. very small or tiny | L. aquatic |
| 13. a group of aquatic animals that have hard, jointed shells, or any member of this group; crabs, shrimp, lobsters | M. molt |
| 14. a crustacean with a long body, two large claws, and eight legs | N. conduct |
| 15. tiny shrimplike crustaceans that are a source of food for many marine animals, including some whales | O. live |
| 16. a small crustacean that lives in shallow water and attaches itself tightly to underwater surfaces, such as rocks and the bottoms of boats | P. krill |
| 17. growing or living in water, such as aquatic animals | Q. live |
| 18. to shed an old outer covering, such as a shell, skin, or feathers | R. conduct |