

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary #2

Across

2. , a natural or man-made lake that stores supplies of fresh water
 4. said of a species when its numbers have been so reduced that the species is in danger of extinction
 6. a harmful change in the natural environment
 8. a specially designed place where garbage is deposited into a lined pit

10. the theory that Earth's surface is broken into pieces or plates that slide over the magma in the mantle
 11. the picking up and removal of rock pieces and other particles
 12. the layer of gases that surround Earth or another planetary body

Down

1. a resource that cannot be replaced relatively quickly and cannot be used or reused again.

3. a resource that can be replaced relatively quickly and so can be used again and again
 5. water droplets that fall from the clouds to the ground
 7. , energy given off by a radioactive element that is transferred by electromagnetic waves
 9. a mixture of smoke and fog, formed when smoke and fumes collect in moist, calm air