

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary 2

Across

5. journalism that is based upon sensationalism and crude exaggeration
7. information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote or publicize a particular political cause or point of view
8. the power or opportunity to act or take charge before others do
9. the belief or desire of a government or people that a country should maintain a strong military capability and be prepared to use it aggressively to defend or promote national interests
10. the right to vote in political elections

Down

1. a procedure that allows citizens to remove and replace a public official before the official's term of office ends
2. political ideology which advocates for people to identify with and take pride in a nation
3. a policy of extending a country's power and influence through diplomacy or military force
4. a general vote by the electorate on a single political question which has been referred to them for a direct decision
6. one who spreads real or alleged scandal about another (usually for political advantage)