

Vocabulary 3

Across

8. A break in which pressure squeezes the brake pads against a flat metal disk producing the friction needed to stop the wheel from turning

10. A device that allows drivers to communicate their intentions to move right or left by means of a blinking light

Down

1. Visually interpreting something that is in motion

2. A signaling device that makes all four turn signals flash at once

3. Vision that gives the objects their three-dimensional appearance and that enables a person to judge the relative distance between two objects

4. The ability to see in the distance

5. The ability of a motor vehicle to hold to a straight line

6. To shift to a lower gear from a Higher One

7. The way you weigh the benefits you receive from driving versus what driving a vehicle actually cost

9. A road that is higher in the center than at either end