

Vocabulary 6

Across

- 1. To translate or decode a writing or a drawing.
- 7. A group of rulers that all live within one family with the crown and throne being passed down through that family for generations.
- 9. A big place that is a location for the decided people were buried.
- 10. An old Egyptian writing that uses pictures or drawings to represent or symbolize different things.

Down

- 2. A life that the Egyptians believed dead people would live again.

3. When Egyptian history had a period of time when it split up into three periods. Those are old, middle and new.

4. Believing in many Gods not just one.

5. A big stone or tablet that has hieroglyphic drawings on it. It helped historians understand hieroglyphics back in ancient Egypt.

6. The longest river in the world which city-states and villages were placed and located around.

8. Huge triangle shapes that were the burial tombs of Egypt that Pharaoh built during the Old Kingdom.

11. A king or ruler of ancient Egypt that was thought of as a God in that time period.