

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Vocabulary Cross Word Puzzle

Across

2. In 1765, Parliament passed the _____
4. _____, the British monarch, wanted to enforce the proclamation and also keep peace with Britains Native American Allies
5. The declaration then goes on to state that all people have certain _____ rights
7. _____, led this band of backwoodsmen known as the Green Mountain Boys
9. Later, colonial merchants organized a _____ of British goods
11. John and Samuel Adams, John Hancock, Benjamin, George Washigton, and Patric Henry they all agreed to form a _____

12. The British called these laws the Coercive Acts, but they were so harsh that the colonists called them the _____
14. _____, a Boston silversmith, and a second messenger, William Dawes, were charged with spreading the new about British troop movements
16. Those who sided with the rebels were _____
17. In 1764, Parliament passed the _____
18. The Green Mountain Boys captured the fort and its large supply of _____
19. _____, a lawyer and cousin of Samuel Adams, defended them in court
20. In 1765, Parliament passed the _____

Down

1. Britain needed more _____, or income, to meet its expenses
3. Those who supported the Britishhe were called _____
6. The most famous of these groups was the _____
8. The Sons of Liberty called the shooting the _____ 10. So in 1767 Parliament passed his plan, known as the _____
13. _____, a member of Virginia's House of Burgesses, called for resistance to the tax
15. The driving force behind his protest was _____, a leader of the Boston Sons of Liberty