

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Crossword

Across

1. A well in which water rises because of pressure within the aquifer

5. A harmful substance in the air, water, or soil

12. The process of supplying water to areas of land to make them suitable for growing crops

13. A fountain of water and steam that builds up pressure underground and erupts at regular intervals

14. An underground layer of rock or sediment that holds water

15. The top of the saturated zone, or depth to the groundwater under Earth's surface

Down

2. A specific source of pollution that can be identified

3. The addition of any substance that has a negative effect on water or the living things that depend on the water

4. A layer of rocks and soil above the water table in which the pores contain air as well as water

6. A layer of permeable rock or soil in which the cracks and pores are totally filled with water

7. Characteristic of a material that is full of tiny, connected air spaces that water can seep through

8. A widely spread source of pollution that is difficult to link to a specific point of origin

9. A characteristic of materials, such as clay and granite, through which water does not easily pass

10. A place where groundwater flows to the surface

11. The practice of using less of a resource so that it will not be used up