

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Lessons 1 - 3

Across

1. to give something out again or spread it around in a different way
3. a statement that makes things clear or easier to understand
5. a discussion in which people take different sides
8. events arranged in time order
12. to look closely at something to judge its value, quality, or importance
13. to record information about something to provide evidence
14. done in a way that is not planned and lacks order or direction

17. something that is priceless and can't be measured

18. to meet with others to share ideas or ask for advice
20. to give something to others or spread around
21. to make, build, or put something together

Down

2. skillful, clever, and good at solving problems
4. to find a new or different meaning for something
6. a subject or matter of concern about people often disagree

7. a statement or prediction that can be tested

9. a careful search or close study for information

10. to figure out what something means, and you may share its meaning with others

11. your way of doing something; to move nearer or closer in time

15. to disagree and sometimes argue

16. to look back at something to review it, especially if it has changed or you have new information

19. to prefer one thing above another and make judgments based on your own preferences