

Name: _____ Date: _____

Vocabulary Lists #3 and 4

- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| 1. condone | A. eclectic |
| 2. a person who accepts established behavior | B. daunting |
| 3. in a natural or raw state | C. discern |
| 4. a task that appears difficult to complete, intimidating | D. decorum |
| 5. behavior that is well mannered | E. erudite |
| 6. abusive and bitter attack through speech or writing | F. e.g. |
| 7. a difference between two opposite things | G. diatribe |
| 8. the cleanness and effectiveness of enunciation when speaking, or choice of words | H. dichotomy |
| 9. designed to teach people something | I. crude |
| 10. to go off on a tangent, leave the main subject | J. disparate |
| 11. to perceive or recognize something | K. emulate |
| 12. not honest or sincere | L. ethereal |
| 13. different from each other, unlike | M. digress |
| 14. for example | N. exacerbate |
| 15. elements from a diverse range of sources | O. disingenuous |
| 16. match something or someone, imitate | P. conformist |
| 17. having or showing great knowledge | Q. to accept and allow |
| 18. deliverately avoid using something | R. diction |
| 19. extremely light and delicate that seems heavenly | S. didactic |
| 20. to turn an already bad situation worse | T. eschew |