

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Terms

Across

1. when the reader or audience knows something a character does not
6. the perspective from which a literary work is told
11. the atmosphere or predominant emotion in literary work
12. a reference to something well known that exists outside the literary work
14. The manner in which an author develops characters and their personalities
19. voice in a poem; the person or thing that is speaking
23. the essential background information at the beginning of a literary work
26. the underlying main idea of a literary work, aka the meaning of the work as a whole. Theme differs from the subject of a literary work in that involves a general statement or opinion about the subject
28. phrase that consists of two words that are contradictory "living dead", "jumbo shrimp"
30. language that represents one thing in terms of something dissimilar
31. type or category to which a literary work belongs

32. the narrator is outside the story

33. a conclusion reached on the basis of evidence and reasoning

34. language that appeals to the five senses

35. the narrator knows all the thoughts, actions, and feelings of all the characters

36. use a word whose sound imitates its meaning "hiss", "drip"

37. the development of conflict and complications in a literary work

Down

2. struggle between two or more opposing forces

3. associations which people make with words that go beyond the literal or dictionary definition

4. an implied comparison between dissimilar objects "Her talent blossomed"

5. A grammatical construction where the subject is doing the acting, as in the sentence "Kevin hit the ball."

7. results or effects of the climax of a literary work

8. the time and place of a literary work

9. the turning point in a literary work

10. technique that keeps the reader guessing what will happen next

13. when there is a disparity between what is expected and what actually occurs

15. repetition of the initial consonant sounds of words: "Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers"

16. the narrator is a character in the story

17. end of literary work when loose ends are tied up and questions are answered

18. the dictionary definition of a word

20. one thing used to represent something else

21. character that is the source of the conflict in a literary work

22. hint of what is to come in a literary work

24. the main character

25. the author's attitude toward the subject of a work

27. Another character in a story who contrasts with the main character, usually to highlight one of their attributes

29. when the speaker says one thing but means another