

Vocabulary Terms

Across

2. A guess made using background information

11. a standard or principle

12. The relationship between two variables

13. A process of experimentation used to explore observations

14. A three dimensional representation of a person or thing

15. information that can be measured and written down with numbers

16. a set of connected things or parts forming a complex whole

17. A series of steps engineers follow to come up with a solution to a problem

Down

1. A limitation or restriction

3. A variable whose value depends on that of another

4. A means of solving a problem

5. Something kept the same throughout the experiment

6. A variable whose variation does not depend on that of another

7. information that can't actually be measured

8. The first model in an experiment before the final

9. Making a conclusion from evidence

10. To declare that something will happen in advance