

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Unit 2

Across

1. A political party that believed in stronger state power rather than federal government power
2. The belief that the constitution can be interpreted in many ways
3. A political party that believed in a strong federal government
8. A diplomatic problem between France and the US in which the US had to pay French representatives money to begin negotiations
9. Members of congress who pressured Madison into declaring war on Britain
11. A war between the US and Great Britain, fought because of Britain's inability to follow a treaty
12. A president received the most popular and electoral college votes and did not become president

14. These laws raised the residency requirement from 5 to 14 years

15. A plan to balance americas agriculture, commerce, and industry
16. The purchase of Louisiana which grew the united states by almost double
17. The system of manufacturing that is based on the concentration of industry into large establishments
19. Review by the U.S Supreme Court
20. The treaty between the US and Spain that gave the US Florida
21. A period in which the US had a sense of purpose and desire to be one
22. A principle of US policy. It stated that foreign countries could not interfere with the US government

Down

4. The proposed plan to create a federal bank
5. This case established a loose interpretation of the constitution in federal courts
6. This compromise admitted missouri as a slave state and maine as a free state
7. this court case established judicial review and whether or not a new president has to honor a old ones judge appointment
10. The division of land into smaller units under private ownership
13. A violent protest against the taxes imposed on whiskey
18. A machine that quickly and easily separates cotton from the seeds