

Vocabulary Week-12 (trimester 2)

Across

1. Speaking or writing only one language
5. A long speech given by one person
7. Having one color; a painting, design, photo, or outfit that is only one color or shades of one color
8. Something made out of one single large block or piece of stone; one single
9. A track for subway or train cars that only has one

Word Bank

Monolingual
monocle
monosyllabic

Monolith
Monopoly
Monophobia

Monorail
monochrome

Monologue
Monotone

10. Having only one syllable

Down

2. A speech in which every word has one tone of
3. And abnormal fear of being the only one there; fear of being alone
4. Control of a product or service by one
6. an eyeglass for one eye