

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Wizard

Across

3. A mounted man serving a feudal superior man ceremonially inducted into special military rank

4. An association of people with similar interests or medieval association of merchants

8. One bound by indenture to serve another prescribed period with a view to learning an or trade or someone who is learning by practical experience under skilled workers

11. The one who carries the shield of a knight, the male servant of someone, a lady's escort, or an owner of country estate

12. A house for religious vows

14. Also called Charles the Great, was the king of the franks from 768

15. People from the north Germany who migrated to the island of Britain around the 5th century

Down

1. A moral, religious and social code of knightly and social conduct

2. The training method used during the Medieval time of the Middle Ages to use a lance

5. A document that was signed between the feudal barons and King John.

6. An estate of land, especially one held on condition of feudal service

7. Someone of the Scandinavian conquerors of Normandy in the 10th century

9. Is traditionally a young male servant, but may also have been used for a messenger at the service of a noble man

10. The system of political organization prevailing Europe from 9th-15th centuries having as it's basis the relation of lord to vassal with all land held in fee

13. Like other officers of arms, a herald, would often wear surcoat, called a tabard, decorated with the coat of arms of his master