

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Words 16-26

Across

1. a person, especially a political leader, who gains power and popularity by arousing the emotions, passions, and prejudices of the people

4. to stray away from the main point or idea

5. the degree or point at which lines, objects, etc. join

7. constant in effort to accomplish something; attentive and persistent in doing something

8. a person who conforms (changes) to the usual practices or standards of a group/ society

9. acting graciously towards another or others regarded as being on a lower level

10. an assembly of persons brought together, usually for common religious worship

Down

2. imposing, containing, subject to, or depending on

3. injurious to health; harmful

6. to injure or harm the reputaion of; to destroy confidence in