

Vocabulary

Across

2. study of materials and sources in order to establish facts and reach new conclusions
5. a chapter, episode, book, or movie that ends on a suspenseful situation with no current resolution
6. to point out resemblances or similarities
10. a literary and a film technique in which chronological and sequential narrative is interrupted by the recollection of an image or a scene from the past
11. confirm or suggest the truth of a statement, theory, or finding
12. stated clearly and in detail, leaving no room for confusion or doubt
15. the result of an action or occurrence
16. words/phrases to describe something often through comparison with something different
17. the author's attitude toward a subject
20. an early sketch, outline, or version of
26. draw a conclusion based on given facts; predict, generalize
28. to give a brief statement of the main points of (something)
31. words/phrases to describe something often through comparison with something different
32. a warning or indication of (a future event)
35. a writer of a book, article, or report
36. a warning or indication of (a future event)
40. a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something; a point of view

41. a person in a novel, play, or movie
43. state or assert that something is the case or true, typically without providing evidence or proof
44. to find and correct mistakes in text before it is printed or put online
45. the available body of facts or information showing whether a statement is true or reasonable
46. steps you take to develop ideas before you actually start writing
47. give a detailed account in words of (someone or something), including characteristics, qualities, or events
48. help to cause or bring about
49. a particular order in which related events, movements, or things follow each other

Down

1. the literal or primary meaning of a word
3. a person who tells the story, especially a character who recounts the events of a novel or narrative poem
4. not influenced by personal feelings or opinions in considering and representing facts
7. words/phrases in their basic meaning
8. to point out or emphasize differences
9. prove (a statement or theory) to be wrong or false
13. based on or influenced by personal feelings, tastes, or opinions
14. suggested or hinted at though not plainly expressed
18. conversation between 2 or more characters in a story

19. clearly show the existence or truth of (something) by giving proof or evidence
21. an idea or feeling attached to a word in addition to its literal or primary meaning
22. a word or phrase that makes specific the meaning of another word or phrase
23. construct in order to improve upon what is already existing
24. adding and taking away parts of the story, and improving your organization, voice, word choice, and sentence fluency
25. critically examine each of the facts
27. make (content) available in print/online
29. the main events of a play, novel, movie, or similar work, devised and presented by the writer as a sequence
30. cause (someone) to believe something or do something, especially after a sustained effort to convince
33. the atmosphere of a piece of writing; it's the emotions a selection arouses in a reader
34. he parts of something written or spoken that come immediately before and/or after a word or passage that clarify its meaning
37. a short portion from a film, broadcast, piece of music or writing
38. the choice and use of words and phrases in speech or writing
39. a story or an experience of an event or series of events
42. the reason for an action or occurrence