

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Vocabulary for Science

Across

- 3. the number and variety of organisms in a given area during a specific period of time
- 8. a group of organisms of one type that live in the same area
- 9. the largest population an area can support with its resources
- 10. symbiosis that is beneficial to both organisms involved

Down

- 1. organisms that eat other organisms
- 2. populations of plants and animals that live together in a defined area (biotic only)
- 4. the study of the interactions of living organisms and their environment
- 5. living things or once living
- 6. organisms that make their own food through photosynthesis
- 7. without life