

Name: _____

Vocabulary terms

Across

1. When the author develops characters and their personalities
4. A word whose sound imitates its meaning ex. "hiss"
5. The essential background information at the beginning
8. A character who contrasts with the main character
9. When the speaker says one thing but means the opposite
10. The development of conflict and complications
11. When the subject is acted on by the verb ex. "The ball was hit by Kevin".
12. Implied comparison between dissimilar things
13. The category in which a literary work belongs
19. A reference to something unknown outside of literary work
23. The difference between the expectation and what actually happened
25. Language appealing to the 5 senses

28. One thing used to represent something else

29. Conclusion drawn from evidence & reasoning
31. Language that represents one thing in terms of a dissimilar thing
33. Repetition of the first consonant sounds of words.
35. The dictionary definition of a word
36. The ending when questions are answered
38. The main character
39. Associations which people make with words that go beyond the literal meaning
40. The time and place

Down

2. When something different occurs than what was expected
3. The author's attitude
6. An interruption of the chronological sequence with an earlier event
7. The turning point
14. Results or effects of the climax

15. When the reader knows something a character does not
16. The perspective from which a literary work is told
17. The character that is the source of the conflict
18. Hint of what is to come
20. The voice in a literary work
21. Exaggeration to add meaning
22. Word choice to create a special effect
24. Consists of two contradicting words ex. "living dead"
26. The main idea
27. The subject is acted on by the verb ex. "the ball was hit by Kevin."
30. The struggle between two or more opposing forces
32. The sequence of events
34. The atmosphere or emotion in a literary work
37. Comparing dissimilar objects using like or as