

Vocabulary words

Across

4. wacky, strange and kind of crazy and
 6. average, not something amazing and not something terrible, just
 7. astounded, to be absolutely shocked and
 10. envision, to imagine with your mind how something might
 11. distinct, easy to identify as being different from everything else. Easy to

12. appreciate, to recognize the full value of something or
 13. filthy, extremely dirty, a total
 14. impossible, not able to do or complete no matter how hard you

Down

1. trivia, details facts and pieces of information that are interesting but not always the most important
 2. drift, to move slowly into something, almost like

3. useful, something that can be used in a practical
 5. proof, evidence that something is
 8. entertaining, to be able to provide enjoyment and amusement to
 9. peering, to have a hard time looking at something or at someone and it takes extra