

Vocabulary Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. relating to the use of natural elements that can be put back into the earth without damaging the planet; relating to our ability to work with the planet rather than against it
 6. - a house with walls made from pressed-together earth
 8. the ability to absorb and retain temperature
 11. the process of undergoing a drying process
 13. to add something new to something that wasn't designed to use it

15. the movement of water from the sky to the land and then to the sky again through a process of six steps

Down

2. the ability of heat to move from one object to another in the form of conduction, convection, and radiation
 3. energy that is capable of being replaced by natural ecological cycles such as the Sun and wind
 4. a 7- to 10-layered roof that is built to support plant life
 5. the process of making or forming by combining or arranging parts or elements; building

7. the ability to use solar energy without using mechanical systems

9. the amount of heat produced by large cities due to cars, gas emissions, air pollution, energy use, and so forth
 10. capable of being broken down by living things such as microorganisms
 12. to obtain from a waste product or by-product; to recover or rescue
 14. to take a material and put it through a process to create something else; to cycle again