

Voice Disorders Crossword Puzzle

Across

5. The sensation that something feels stuck in your throat.

8. Redness of skin as a result of injury or irritation

11. The opening in the trachea.

12. A change in quality, pitch, or loudness that is different from what is expected for someone of the same age and/or sex.

14. The surgical procedure where the entire larynx is removed.

16. This term refers to changes that are common with the aging larynx.

18. A mismatch between a person's sex that is assigned to them at birth and their gender identity.

19. This includes the auditory-perceptual symptoms of voice disorders. This is characterized by altered pitch, loudness, voice quality, or vocal effort.

20. This part of the trach indicates the trach model and size.

Down

1. The narrowing or inability to open your mouth/jaw as wide as you should be able to.

2. These are caused by repeated vocal fold trauma. They can be acute or chronic.

3. Thickening of laryngeal epithelium

4. The most common reason for why a person may have a trach tube placed.

6. This type of voice disorder arises from physical changes in the voice mechanism. This can include vocal fold abnormalities, inflammation of the larynx, and trauma to the larynx.

7. The surgery to make an opening in the trachea.

9. Dryness of mouth

10. A behavior or behaviors that contribute to laryngeal injury.

13. Swelling that occurs in the vocal folds. This is commonly seen in Reinke's _____.

15. A weak voice

17. Loss of voice