

Volcanism & Earthquakes

Across

3. A convergent boundary is a _____ zone.

4. The _____ is the opening to a volcano.

9. Hotspots formed places like Yellowstone and the island of _____.

11. The two kinds of crust that appear at a subduction zone are oceanic and _____.

12. The _____ is the bowl shape of a volcano.

13. This is the most dangerous type of volcano and is formed like a shield and cinder cone volcano combined.

14. A well-known divergent boundary.

Down

1. This is what explodes out of a volcano.

2. A _____ boundary occurs when two plates separate/pull away from each other.

5. Volcanic activity takes place primarily at _____ zones.

6. Famous transform fault in western North America.

7. What measures the thickness and stickiness of liquid (lava)?

8. Continents fit together like a _____, leading us to think that they were all together at one point. (pangea)

10. _____ escape causing lava to be explosive or ooze.