

Name: _____

Date: _____

WEATHER PUZZLE

Across

3. Air that is moving is called?

7. How the air and sky feel or look like?

9. In the polar regions there is a precipitation of rain in a form of?

11. Large areas with unique plants and animals influenced by climate?

12. An example of a biome which is cold and has a lot of grasses?

13. One of the gasses/vapors in the atmosphere that affect the weather?

14. The climate found in a polar areas is an example of the types of world climates?

Down

1. Weather observed over a long period of time is called?

2. One example of a phenomenon in which weather can be harmful to human beings through too much water?

4. Any form of moisture at which moisture falls to the earth, is called?

5. An element of weather that is responsible for coldness and hotness?

6. A weather observation instrument used to measure temperature?

8. The layer of gasses which envelope the earth?

10. A weather observation instrument used to measure rainfall?