

WORLDVIEW FINAL

Across

3. those who attempt to defend the Christian faith without the bias of presuppositions, assuming history and experience can by itself demonstrate the reasonableness of Christian claims
 4. faithful to scripture
 10. the testimony of God's written Word, the Bible
 13. based on someone's personal knowledge, opinions and desires
 14. pertaining to the world, non-religious
 19. idea that there is something above or outside nature
 22. the blessing given by God to humans to rule over his creation (be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over it)
 23. the evolutionary process; only the fittest survive

24. the process of society turning away from religion, faith, supernatural
 25. so far above as to be in a different category

Down

1. humans are made in God's likeness with particular moral and personal similarities that reflect Him
 2. constants built into the design and operation of the physical universe
 5. those who hold the view that reason is the bedrock on which all human knowledge rests
 6. an idea you have in your head before you look at the evidence
 7. to press God's world toward it's ideal and maximize its usefulness
 8. belief that reason not religion or experience provides the only firm foundation for knowledge

9. the politically powerful and influential intellectuals in any given group
 11. The testimony to truth in God's world; creation
 12. the design of God's created order (the way things are supposed to be) governs the way humans ought to operate
 15. those who hold the view that only experience, regulated by the scientific method can bring truth
 16. someone who says he does not know if God exists
 17. limited by space, time and ability
 18. the display of God's love, holiness, power and justice
 20. personally present, accessible
 21. recognized leaders in all aspects of culture