

Name: _____

Date: _____

WW1 Crossword

Across

2. The Triple Entente was made up of Britain, France and _____.
3. _____ was the assassin who jumped into the river to escape.
5. Britain and the USA did not want to get involved in other countries' politics. This is called _____.
9. Turkey was also known as the _____ Empire.
13. Russia was almost entirely _____.
15. _____ in the trenches fed on human remains (eating their eyes and liver) they could grow to the size of a cat.

17. Russians and Serbs are both _____, and since there were many living in Austria-Hungary, Russia believed they should be able to have control over them.

18. _____ causes Trench Fever.
19. The German _____ believed Germany should be a world power.
20. Franz Ferdinand's killer was named Gavrilo _____.

Down

1. _____ was not a strong power and Germany and Austria-Hungary did not entirely trust the country.
4. After defeating France, Germany took from them an important area called _____.
6. Franz Ferdinand's wife Sophie was hit by a bullet in the _____.

7. Gavrilo was from _____ originally.

8. Britain was most worried about _____.

10. Franz Ferdinand was assassinated in _____.

11. Franz Ferdinand's assassins all had bombs, pistols and _____ in their pockets.

12. Germany used to be a collection of small, independent states. Of these, _____ was the most powerful.

14. By 1914, Germany industry had overtaken Britain's and was second in the world only to the _____.

16. Franz Ferdinand was the _____ of Austria.