

Name: _____

Date: _____

War

Across

1. In order for a just war a country must enter it with a reasonable chance of...
4. A utilitarian that believes that we should follow all established laws conducted by the UN during conflict
5. Causes of war: If a country have been under the rule of another country and they want to up-rise and secure their own...
8. 10 guidelines that most Christians & Jews that shape their beliefs about war
9. The type of war that WW1 & WW2 were
11. Utilitarian's believe that you should strive for the greatest amount of what for the greatest amount of people?
13. A war must be that last
20. An act considered to be wrong
21. Cost of war that damages land, air purity and crops
22. The.....War theory

23. An act that shows no-understanding of right or wrong
27. The Geneva convention has been altered to reflect the modern updates on ...
28. The number of people killed in war can never be exact it must be an ...

Down

2. The convention signed by most countries that give humane rules to follow during war
3. 5 guidelines that Buddhists follow for guidance on war
6. causes of war: Defending yourself from ...
7. In order for a war to be just it must be started by a proper authority such as a.....
10. A soldier or civilian killed in combat or by a military weapon is known as a ..... casualty
12. A utilitarian that believes that wars are not good but they are sometimes necessary

14. Buddhists believe in what kind of action?
15. Buddhist monks can defend themselves but should not do what under ANY circumstances?
16. A war fought between two factions of the same country
17. Non traditional tactics of fighting are known as what warfare?
18. The Geneva convention is ... and accepted by 196 countries around the world
19. What does a humanist take into account when coming to a decision about a situation?
24. causes of war : Defending the ... from attack
25. Just war theory was created by St. Augustine & Thomas ...
26. A word used to describe civilian causalities of war that were not involved in militant action