Wearable
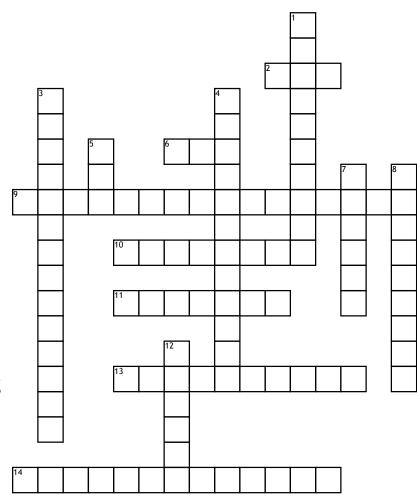

Across

2. the use of computers to design objects

6. a system that can show the exact position of a person or thing by using signals from satellites

9. images produced by a computer and used together with a view of the real world

10. Technology worn on your body

11. a person who has the job of watching or noticing particular things.

13. the act of stopping something from happening or of stopping someone from doing something.

14. a device that measures acceleration or G-force

Down

1. The NHS provide this service for people.

3. a set of images and sounds, produced by a computer, that seem to represent a place or a situation that a person can take part in

4. a condition or situation that causes problems, especially one that causes something or someone to be less successful than other things or people:

5. Short for computer-assisted manufacturing.

7. you can wear me round your wrist to monitor your health and I rhyme.

8. a device containing a wheel that spins freely within a frame, used on aircraft and ships to help keep them horizontal, and as a children's toy

12. a device that is used to record that something is present or that there are changes in something.