

Name: _____

Weather

Across

1. The amount of water vapor in the air.
4. A boundry between air masses of different densities and usually different temperatures.
7. Causes most of our violent weather.
9. A visibale mass of condense water vapor floating in the atmosphere.
10. A large body of air where the temperature and moisture are constant troughout.

12. The average weather conditions in an area over a long period of time.
13. The temperature in which a gas condense into a liquid.
14. High, thin clouds- usally means change in weather.
15. A prolonged period of abnormally low rainfall.

Down

2. Rain, hail, sleet, or snow that falls to the ground
3. Large, white, fluffy clouds, that usally appear during fair weather.

5. A severe storm that devlops over a tropical ocean.
6. The air mass doing the pushing is warmer and less dense than the air that it is pushing.
8. A destructive, rotating column of air that touches the ground.
11. A short term state of the atmosphe.