

Weather

Across

2. The movement of air due to differences in pressure.

6. The type of energy that creates wind.

7. the apparent curving of winds due to earth's rotation.

9. A liquid form of precipitation.

10. The layer of protection above the troposphere

11. The middle layer of the atmosphere.

12. The flow of heat by direct contact. (exp. cold & warm air)

Down

1. The form of energy in the sun rays.

3. The layer of the atmosphere that we are in.

4. The source that gives us light and heat.

5. Narrow belts of high-speed wind that blow from west to east.

8. The measure of weather over a long period of time.