

Weathering and Erosion

Across

- 6. Planting or building a _____ is a good way to prevent wind erosion.
- 7. Bits of rock, sand, soil, and even fur or feathers that collect on the ground and get carried away with water.
- 9. A slow moving river of ice.
- 10. A pile of soil left behind from a flooded street.

Down

- 1. When a strong wind blows dust from a dry region, a _____ can occur.

- 2. Rock formed in layers and made of pieces of sand, soil, or other rocks that have been deposited.
- 3. The natural process of breaking down rock.
- 4. To break up the ground or turn it over to prepare the soil for planting crops.
- 5. An example of _____ is when water carries soil from a garden to another place.
- 8. The chemicals that rock is made of.