

Name: _____

Date: _____

Weberian

Across

3. describes men's domination of the highest-ranking jobs in both traditionally male and female occupations.
7. refers to how men often rise higher and faster up the career ladder than women
8. gender dominate the secondary labour maket
9. argue that there is a dual labour market
10. refers to differences in the number of males and females present across occupations

Down

1. concept used to describe the exclusion of some people from membership of certain status groups
2. consists of secure, well-paid jobs that have good promotion prospects
4. argue that there is no longer a consensus about what constitutes high and low status as norms and values are no longer fixed
5. this concept has been used to explain women's employment patterns.
6. concept that helps to explain the difference in social mobility between men and women

Word Bank

glassceiling

women

verticalsegregation

socialclosure

barronandnorris

horizontalsegregation

duallabourmarket

postmodernists

glasselevator

primarylabourmarket